Count on Aflac for Life

The pandemic has changed how we think and feel about many things. One of the most important is life insurance. As uncomfortable as it may be, we have been forced to think about how our families may manage without the primary wage earner. Aflac is here to help you plan for the unexpected. Whether it's paying for final expenses, enabling your loved ones to remain in the family home or providing for school tuition and educational costs, life insurance is a smart decision. When someone is depending on you for financial security, you can count on Aflac for Life.

Coverage to count on

You can choose the face amount that best fits your budget and your family's lifestyle. When the unthinkable happens, Aflac will pay cash benefits directly to your beneficiary, unless you choose otherwise. This means that your family will have added financial resources to help with ongoing living expenses. This plan also builds cash value.

This whole life plan provides:

- Portable coverage, so you can take it with you if you change jobs or retire.
- Convenient premium payments through payroll deduction.
- Plans starting at $18.31 per month. Plan cost and benefits will vary depending on your age and face amount chosen.

Peace of mind from a company you can trust

With Aflac Whole Life insurance, you can rest easy knowing that Aflac is ready to help take care of your loved ones' immediate and future needs if you should pass away.
